

I-TRAIN: Building Workforce Preparedness and Response

June 21, 2016

Ilya Plotkin
Public Health Foundation

i.train.org

What is I TRAIN?

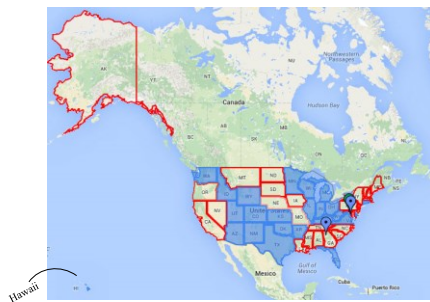

- ▶ Part of the TRAIN Learning Network
 - ▶ Established in 2003
 - ▶ Illinois joined in 2012
- ▶ Covers training on topics across the health sector
 - ▶ Public health
 - ▶ Emergency preparedness
 - ▶ Healthcare

Over 60 total subject areas

The TRAIN Learning Network

- ▶ Initial design and development involved over 40 states and 400 health professionals
- ▶ Continuously improved through investment from partners, funders, and sponsors, including
 - ▶ Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC)
 - ▶ Robert Wood Johnson Foundation (RWJF)
 - ▶ Public Health Foundation (PHF)
 - ▶ Agencies & organizations part of the TRAIN Learning Network

Our Network

How does the TRAIN Learning Network operate?

- ▶ Coordinated
 - ▶ Led by a national non-profit: Public Health Foundation
 - ▶ Shared platform and catalog of "national" courses
 - ▶ Constant communication between agencies/organizations
- ▶ Decentralized
 - ▶ Agencies/organizations manage portals
 - ▶ Distributed sources of training content

How big is TRAIN?

- ▶ 28 affiliate agencies
 - ▶ 25 states
 - ▶ Centers for Disease Control & Prevention (CDC)
 - ▶ Medical Reserve Corps (MRC)
 - ▶ Veterans Health Administration (VHA)
- ▶ Over one million health professionals
 - ▶ 25,407 from Illinois (as of June 2016)
- ▶ Thousands of courses from nearly 4,000 providers
 - ▶ Over 2,700 available in I TRAIN

How active is TRAIN?

- ▶ 5,882,391 course registrations
 - ▶ 104,454 from Illinois
- ▶ 4,822,355 course completions
 - ▶ 86,184 from Illinois
- ▶ 82.0% completion rate nationally
 - ▶ 82.5% completion rate in Illinois

Storage

- ▶ Recordkeeping
- ▶ Accessibility

What does I TRAIN do?

- ▶ Centralize training across formats
 - ▶ Online (eLearning, webinars)
 - ▶ In person (classroom-based)
 - ▶ Drills & exercises
 - ▶ Conferences
- ▶ Centralize content
 - ▶ Illinois Department of Public Health (IDPH)
 - ▶ Local health departments
 - ▶ Partnering community organizations
 - ▶ Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC)
 - ▶ Medical Reserve Corps units
 - Any organization can connect

Search

Search Parameters

By Subject: Terrorism/Emergency Readiness

By Course ID: All

By Location: All

By Audience: All

By Competencies and Capabilities: All

By Format: All

By Credit Type: All

By Sponsor/Officer: All

By Code: All

By Accreditation: All

By Certificate: All

By Keyword Search: All

By Training Unit: All

By Language: All

Advanced Search

20 rows per page

✓	Title	Type	Sponsor/Officer	Format	Rating
✓	AT&ES: Bunking Field Stress for First Responders (Web on Demand) - MCR459	Web-based Training	Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC)	Web-based Training	5.0000 (1 review)
✓	Notes on the Road Line: Preparing for and Responding to Emergencies and Disasters (101-286)	Web-based Training	The North Westington University Department of Nursing Education	Web-based Training	5.0000 (1 review)
✓	Protecting Animals in Disaster (part of the Road to Resilience series of presentations)	Self-study	US-DEED-PEERL	Self-study	5.0000 (1 review)
✓	Crisis and Emergency Risk Communication Online Workshop	Self-study	WCOH Office of Public Health Preparedness	Web-based Training	5.0000 (1 review)
✓	Biological Agents: Botulin	Self-study	Public EMERITS	Web-based Training	5.0000 (1 review)
✓	Biological Agents: Botulin	Self-study	Public EMERITS	Self-study	5.0000 (1 review)
✓	Biological Agents: Plague	Self-study	Public EMERITS	Web-based Training	5.0000 (1 review)
✓	Biological Agents: Risk	Self-study	Public EMERITS	Web-based Training	5.0000 (1 review)

Learner Ratings

Summary Course Information

What makes I TRAIN unlike any other platform?

- ▶ Built & maintained by and for public health
- ▶ The most comprehensive one stop learning shop for health professionals
- ▶ Integrated standards
 - ▶ Public Health Preparedness Capabilities
 - ▶ Public Health Preparedness and Response Core Competencies
 - ▶ Healthcare System Preparedness Capabilities
 - ▶ Core Competencies for Disaster Medicine and Public Health
 - ▶ Core Competencies for Public Health Professionals

What can I use I TRAIN to do?

- ▶ Track training across formats and providers
- ▶ Record training of staff and other health professionals
- ▶ Offer training to partnering organizations
- ▶ Measure competency-based training
- ▶ Identify gaps in training
- ▶ Utilize national standards
- ▶ Develop training plans

Training Plans

Course Title	Facilitator	Target Completion	Status	Completion Date
Basics of Public Health Preparedness
* Webinars about Training Plan changes
Foundations of Public Health Preparedness
* Self-paced training plan changes
Domain 1. Model Leadership (One Course Required)
1	1	1	Not Started
1	1	1	Not Started
1	1	1	Progress
Domain 2. Communicate and Manage Information (One Course Required)
2	2	2	Not Started
2	2	2	Not Started
2	2	2	Not Started
2	2	2	Not Started
Domain 3. Plan for and Improve Practice (One Course Required)
3	3	3	Not Started
3	3	3	Not Started
3	3	3	Not Started
3	3	3	Not Started
Domain 4. Protect Worker Health and Safety (One Course Required)
4	4	4	Not Started
4	4	4	Not Started
4	4	4	Not Started
4	4	4	Not Started

Group Exercise: Developing a Training Plan

- ▶ Tracking training across learners and across courses

i.train.org

Numbers for Thought

- ▶ As of January 1, 2016:
 - ▶ A health professional registers on TRAIN every 4 minutes
 - ▶ ...and registers for a course every 32 seconds
 - ▶ ...for a total of 5.59 million course registrations
 - ▶ ...and completes a course nearly every 38 seconds
 - ▶ 79.3% of the time
 - ▶ ...for a total of 4.43 million course completions
 - ▶ 49.4% of all course completions and 39.2% of all course registrations are competency-based
 - ▶ ...a competency-based course completion every 63 seconds
 - ▶ A credit unit is earned every minute

Thank you

Questions?

Ilya Plotkin
 Assistant TRAIN Director
 Public Health Foundation
ijlotkin@phf.org or training@phf.org